New York, NY 10007

Re: Torres v. Patricias Morris Park Corp., et al.
SDNY Case No.: 1:23-cv-07820

Dear Judge Lehrburger,

This law firm represents the Plaintiff, Brayniel Torres, in the above-captioned case. On February 26, 2024, this Court entered an Order scheduling a Telephonic Initial Pretrial Conference for Thursday, March 14, 2024, at 9:30 a.m. Plaintiff's counsel has a previously scheduled medical appointment on this date and time and is therefore respectfully requesting that Your Honor adjourn the conference. The parties have conferred and can be available the week of April 1 through 5 if it so pleases the Court. This is our first request for an adjournment, and the request will not prejudice any parties or affect any other scheduled dates.

We thank the Court for your time and consideration in this matter.

Respectfully Submitted,

If the medical appointment was pre-existing, then counsel should have raised it when the conference was first set and not waited until they were reminded to submit the pre-conference report. The Court will grant the adjournment but expects better communication in the future.
